- First Reading of Ordinance No. 2025-88- An Ordinance approving Additional Appropriations in the EPA/OWDA Water Plant Project Expense Lines from the EPA/OWDA Water Plant Project Revenue Line and Declaring an Emergency.
Sponsor: Phillips
Discussion: 4th payment for Water Plant Project. Not enough Council present to Suspend the Rules
- First Reading of Ordinance No. 2025-89- An Ordinance authorizing journal entry corrections to the City's Financial Records and Declaring an Emergency.
Sponsor: Spangler
Discussion: The Service Director explained that this is not an appropriation, this is needed to "clean" the accounting/books from funds being previously paid and deposited into the wrong fund lines.

Mayor

- The Mayor began by thanking the folks from RCAP for their work and saying they've given some really good ideas.
- The Lions Club Christmas parade will happen on Saturday.
- The official announcement for ARC Ready recipients happened today. Wellston received $50,000 for timeclocks and related software.
- The Mayor expressed his concerns over the passing of the federal budget and a possible federal government shutdown. Since the water plant is dependent on federal grants and funding, Brenner stressed the importance of keeping the momentum of construction and seeking a zero-interest federal loan, if needed. He furthered that the City should implement Phase 3 to build a new water tower.
